

The Roswell Register-Tribune

Published Every Friday at Roswell, N. M.

Entered as second-class matter February 11, 1910, at the post office at Roswell, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Published weekly and devoted to the interest of Lovington and the Plains country.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.00 PER YEAR

There are a number of small things brewing which look toward placing Lovington on the Southern Highway.

J. L. Toole says he is satisfied with the sheep business. So long as he can sell wool at 17-18c on the sheep's back he has no kick.

Politics and things political are warming up in New Mexico. Ferguson is booked for renomination for Congress on the Democratic ticket, but one Rodey proposes to inject a little ginger. Don't know Rodey, but we have in mind one single utterance of his on the question of taxation which meant something. Rodey is a stand pat Republican, but he is going to make things interesting.

There are more eyes on Lovington and the Plains just now than probably ever before. The entire Plains country profits by the advertising obtained through our picnic and fair.

E. Bjorn has decided permanently to establish himself here in manufacture of his patent cement blocks, which are composed of wood fiber and saw dust, the face being nicely finished in "marble" by a combination of cements, producing an excellent product. Mr. Bjorn is experimenting with bear grass as a substitute for wood fiber, and thinks it an improvement. He has a couple of buildings already on the string.

Coleman Birthday

(Delayed)

June 14, 1914, was a beautiful day and one that will linger long in the memory of those present of the large crowd who gathered at the hospitable home of J. S. Coleman, near Knowles, to celebrate the birthday of the host, who has reached the Biblical allotment of three score and ten. Mr. Coleman has lived a long and useful life, having served his beloved Southland in her four years of strife in his youth, reared a large and interesting family in his prime, and now as the evening shadows gather, he is completing the development of one of the most beautiful homes in the Sunshine State. It is a home of which anyone may be proud and is an inspiration to every dweller of the Plains, magnificent shade trees, a garden that bountifully supplies his table with vegetables of nearly every description, a few graded cows most of them milkers, hogs that are so fat they are miserable, chickens, some that lay and others that are of the eating size, are the things that make him the independent man.

We reclined in the shade until the call for dinner, and then such a feast as greeted our eyes! Fish from the tank, cooked in the open by W. G. Woerner, a very skillful man in that line, and then all the "trimmings" furnished by the ladies. After dinner there was excellent music by the D. H. Coleman, and by Miss Henri Beza Coleman more testing in the shade, peeps in the magic mirror, etc. Then at sundown another call for "cats" then the trip home too full for utterance.

Those present were Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. Collins, A. B. Coleman, and family, and Mrs. J. R. Barron, all of Midland, Texas. Young Holloway and family, W. M. Holloway and family, D. H. Coleman and family, Mrs. Higgins and family, Mrs. Arnold and family, J. R. and family, J. L. Emerson and family, Messrs. W. G. Woerner, Chas. Roy and W. P. Cook, all of Roswell, N. M.

The Roswell Register-Tribune

A Weekly newspaper seems to have become one of those indispensable factors in our social fabric and home life. The masses of the people have reached a plane of intelligence which impels them to demand a good newspaper, and in this day of quick transit mails, even to the "outlying districts," a weekly paper affords a weekly compendium of the world's doing and country folk feel that they cannot afford a daily. A good all-around "well built," solidly written weekly, brim full of late news, spicy editorials that mean something, pithy articles on scientific farming, stock raising, household economy, politics, etc. is the only thing that will satisfy many.

Such a paper is the Roswell Register-Tribune. The Roswell Printing Company has seen that a weekly paper for just such conditions as prevail on the Plains, for instance, is just about the proper dope. The Register-Tribune is now placed before the public at $1.50, and of course will fill a place such papers as the Leader cannot yet fill.

The Roswell Register-Tribune, and the Lovington Leader have undertaken the task of printing a small daily at Lovington during the coming carnival. Expert news reporters and subscription hustlers will be found in every crowd, every day hustling news and subscribers for the Lovington Leader and the Register-Tribune.

A reduced combined price for the two papers will be agreed upon, and the public may obtain such papers at a small cost.

County Treasuries Overflowing

Santa Fe, N. M. June 19. -Through the new order of things enforced by the state traveling auditor, the county treasuries of New Mexico are literally overflowing with money. On June 1, the 28 county treasuries of New Mexico had a total of $2,027,072.93 to their credit. This is the largest balance ever reported. A material reduction in taxes next year is predicted, providing the assessors do their duty. The various counties are having their obligations promptly paid, their debts in good standing.

Monument Musing

Truck is sowing fine at present, watermelon vines have begun to run and pickaninys find it hard to wait for those fine juicy melons we are going to eat about the first of August.

Mr. Bilberry came in from Carlsbad Friday.

Mr. Herbert Polly left Saturday, he is going to Canada to spend the summer with home folks, we wish him a pleasant journey and visit.

Mr. Joe Phillips was in town Friday.

Quite a few of the Monument people attended the Lovington picnic last week. All report a big time.

Miss Elsie Laughlin left Tuesday for El Paso, where she will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Lillie Smiley of El Paso, and Mrs. Grace Blair of Columbus. Heres wishing her a very pleasant summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bilberry were guests at the hotel Friday.

Jack Anderson is working for Mr. Cooper this week.

Mr. Kortegay of Eighteen got back from Carlsbad Monday.

Uncle Joe Graham was on our streets Monday.

Bales Case

The case of the state against Earl R. Bales, from Nadine, charged with poisoning cattle, was heard before Judge Richards, Tuesday with District Attorney Scott, and Judge Graham for the prosecution and Armstrong & Bots for the defendant. The state charges that Bales poisoned five head of stock belonging to J. H. Hughes, four of which die, and four sheep, only one of which die, on June 9.

Quite a number of witnesses were present from Nadine, near which place the stock ranged. Bales was bound over to the grand jury and his bond fixed at $5000, which he gave.—Carlsbad Argus.

640 Bill

The Ferguson 640 home stead bill has been favorably reported to Congress, and doubt will become a law in the next session if not in this. We regard this as another of Ferguson's great accomplishments for the state. Ferguson is by all odds the ablest man that has ever represented New Mexico in any branch of Congress and will be remembered by all constituents.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
GENERAL LAND OFFICE
Washington, June 18, 1914.

I have your letter of April 22, 1914, asking whether the lands in T. 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, R. 32 E., and other townships in that vicinity which have been withdrawn upon application by the state are subject to settlement.

In reply you are advised that persons who settled upon lands withdrawn from all forms of entry including settlement, by request of the state, will of course have no preference right after the lands are strayed to make entry until after the state has made its selections, and the provisions of the act of August 18, 1894, given the State first choice after lands are opened to entry, and unless the settler can show settlement prior to the date of the receipt in this office of the application of the State for withdrawal of the lands he would have to give way to the State notwithstanding the nature and extent of his improvements.
